Auto Arson Suspected In V.L.M. Garage Fire

State Forestry firemen responded to a call at the home of Sally Fleet Johnson, a 21-year-old former housewife, of 4126 Lois st., Vista La Mesa. The area is not in a local fire district and depends on the Forestry Service for protection.

Her 1962 Oldsmobile was found burning inside her garage at 10:10 p.m. Friday. The victim, who is in the process of getting a divorce, gave police the name of a suspect. The Forestry men listed the burning as suspected arson.

Bull's Eye On Window
Sheriff's deputies are looking for the culprit who threw a pop bottle through the rear window of Durward Tidd's parked car. The car was parked at Tidd's home at 4002 King st., Vista La Mesa.

Gladiators Caught
Jeffrey James Sullivan, 17, of 1551 Gowin st., Spring Valley, was driving west of Jamaica rd. Thursday and yelled at some youthful friends in another auto.

Passengers of a third auto, also carrying youths, mistook the greetings to the other car as a challenge to their bravery. The latter youths, 17 and 18 years of age pursued the Sullivan car, overtook it and forced it to stop. They then used a 17 inch gear shift lever to beat Sullivan over the head and shoulders.

Police, following a description of the gladiators, tracked them to the South Bay area where they were arrested and placed in the custody of juvenile officers.

Store Looters Sought

Three females were caught Thursday taking cans of aerosol hair spray from the Sprouse Reitz store at 7895 Broadway, Lemon Grove. While Richard Carroll, the assistant manager was trying to recover the loot, a male companion came up and told the women to leave. A license plate clue directed police to the Logan Heights area of San Diego.

Skate Is Loot

A 12-year-old young man was released to his mother after a clerk in the Cornet store, 7875 Broadway, caught him carrying out one skate of a pair.

Planter Dunking Reported

An $18 plant was tossed in the swimming pool at the Fairway Apartments, 3734 Fairway rd., near Lemon Grove Friday. George Lynes, apartment manager, suspects a visitor with having perpetrated the act.

Stamps Stolen

A patient suspect who cashed $20 worth of dividend stamps issued by Mark and Johnnie's Service, 317 Sweetwater rd., S.V., is being sought by police.

County Tax Rate Seen Static Despite $110 Million Budget

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — The County Board of Supervisors this week is considering specific budget items in all-day sessions on a total budget of $110,246,000 submitted this week by Chief Administrative Officer T. M. Heggland.

The final recommendation exceeds the proposed budget by $783,384 but Heggland said that a greater increase in estimated revenue for the general county funds helps in the effort to "solve our severe financing problem".

Heggland made no estimate on the county tax rate but did say that the "picture is a little brighter now than it was at the time I submitted the proposed budget".

Thursday morning, the board will study the final road budget submitted by County Road Commissioner David K. Speer. The road budget is $7,664,170. This is down $799,721 from the preliminary budget primarily because some of the items in the preliminary budget have been completed.

In an earlier message to the Board, Heggland predicted a "preservation or reduction" of the county tax rate of $2.139.

Friday morning at 9:30 is the time reserved for the board to hear the San Diego Convention and Tourist Bureau's request for $407,000 to expand their program.

Petitioners For Lights Work Thurs.

Petition circulators for the proposed Lemon Grove Street Lighting District in the San Altos area will be working Thursday evening, Jack Cummings, said today.

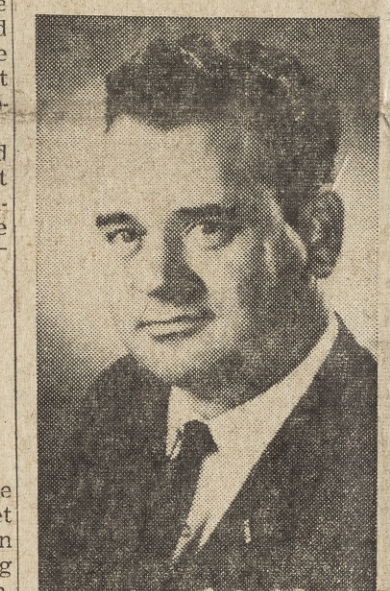

Cummings, chairman of the L.G. Chamber of Commerce street lighting committee, said that eight people will be working in the area from 7 to 10 p.m.

He asked that residents obtain a copy of the legal description of their property and have it ready when the petition passers call.

In order to install street lights, a number representing 25% of the property owners with 25% of the assessed valuation of the proposed district must sign the petitions.

If petition passers are successful, lights could be turned on about Nov. 1, Cummings said.

The lights will cost the average homeowner $7 to $8 a year for current. There will be no charge for installation of the lights.

T. C. Smith

New Manager S.V. Chamber

Tom Smith, 42, well-known horseman-sportsman who was charter president of the Lemon Grove Junior Chamber of Commerce (1955), was named manager of the Spring Valley Chamber of Commerce this week. His salary was not announced.

He has been active in political campaign management for the past several years and has been associated with A. S. Humphrey and Co., business management consultants.

Smith was postmaster of the El Cajon Post Office for a short while several years ago. A WWII Marine, he was severely wounded on Saipan.

G-11 WILL GET YOU THIS SUMMER. MAN SAYS

Anyone who has been caught up in the web of tape that accompanies a squawk to a public utilities firm, or a government agency, knows the frustration of the author of the following material.

Mr. B. Beene lives on Par dr. and works at the Lemon Grove station of the County Road Department. He tried to explain to us a rate change invoked by the San Diego Gas and Electric Co. recently.

We asked Mr. Beene to put in writing why he thought the new G-11 rate is higher than a G-1 rate and why it is invoked. His answer:

Dear Editor:
This G-11 rate costs $3.46 per month over the G-1 rate for the first 100 units. The next 100 units is $1.50 additional. So for 20,000 cu. ft. the increase is $4.96 per month.

However the Public Utilities Commission states that if the usage during August and Sept. is ten per cent or over of the highest month of the previous 12 months (and it comes to the Company's attention) the rate will be reviewed and the G-1 reassigned.

You will notice from the last paragraph of my letter that I assure the SDG&E that my usage will be ten per cent or over this Aug.-Sept. even to the point of watering my tropical plants with hot water, and that it will be done well called to their attention. They won't have a chance to overlook it.

B. Beene
Moral: Don't try to economize. . . . It might cost you more.

His letter to the utility firm just a day or two earlier went like this:

San Diego Gas & Electric Co.
Re: 18-2378-0770-1
Gentlemen:

I am sure that you will agree that knowing the rules, even if some of them make little sense, helps you to play a better game. I am learning.

You see I made the slight error of taking off on vacation for a part of August and September, thereby allowing my gas consumption to fall under ten per cent of the highest month's usage for the previous 12 months, thereby (again) making my account unvaluable to a G-11 rate code imposition, from the G-1 rate heretofore assigned.

This little period of absence saved me only about 84 cents a month on gas (enough to make up the required ten per cent or over) or a total of $1.68. Hardly enough to bother to re-light the pilot lights for. But that was a rule I didn't know about at the time. To date this particular innovation has only cost me $7.60 differential, for which I enclose my check labeled "surcharge".

I shall be quite happy if you will deposit this in your employees Xmas bonus fund to bring cheer while the snow is coming down and the furnaces are burning more G-11 gas this winter.

It is really too bad you didn't notice my absence earlier, say back last October, or I could have been a real Santa Claus (continued on page 4)

State to Pay $102,000 For Mabee Land

A Spring Valley land owner has been awarded $36,690 an acre for 2.78 acres of his land condemned for an expanded freeway interchange. The award was made by Superior Court Monday and he is to receive $102,000 for his parcel.

The parcel was part of 7.93 acres at 9467 Campo rd. at the Palm st. interchange at the terminus of Lemon Grove's Broadway. State Division of Highways officials said the enlarged interchange in the works for the intersection made the acquisition necessary. The property is owned by John C. and Betty Mabee, owners of Big Bear Markets. They live at 4545 Yerba Santa dr.

State appraisers valued the land at $72,658. Mabee's appraisers set the value at $78,000 for land and $23,700 damages. Maybee had testified that the parcel was worth $156,364 and asked $23,700 as damages for a total of $180,064.

An 11-1 jury vote provided $80,000 for the land and $23,700 for damages but decided that Mabee would benefit $1,700 from the freeway, leaving him $102,000 for the 2.78 acres of vacant land.

Local Shopper Wins $35 Prize

The Lemon Grove Appreciation Days Treasure Chest paid off $35 to a Lemon Grove woman Saturday as the weekly contest was held on the midtown plaza.

Mrs. Annie Berry, of 2620 Main st., who had gotten her entry coupon at Mayfair Market, was eligible for ten per cent of the jackpot total. The jackpot amounted to $350.

The contest will be continued every week with the grand prize total growing. Next week there will be $400 up for grabs.

Entry coupons may be obtained from local shops exhibiting the Treasure Chest placards.

L.G. JAYCEES REELECT LENOX

Hal Lenox, an employee of the PacTelCo., was re-elected president of the Lemon Grove Junior Chamber of Commerce for the coming six months period, it was announced this week by Jaycees' State Director Frank Salas.

Bill Nevills and Floyd Tiderman were elected first and second vice presidents, respectively.

David Bird Ahead In LG, Lags Behind Boney In SV

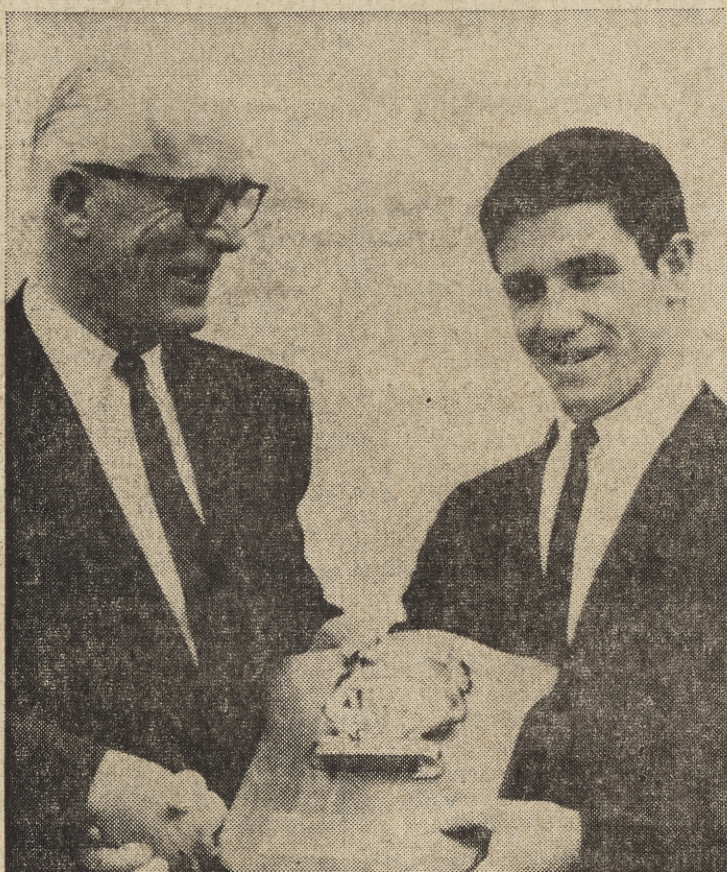

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — Second District Supervisor David Bird had a slight margin over his primary election opponent Henry Boney in Lemon Grove but lagged behind Boney in Spring Valley.

By unofficial count in Lemon Grove, Bird had 2,748 votes to Boney's 2,533 with the other two men in the race, Ray Christianson and Herman Snodgrass having 785 votes.

In Spring Valley, the vote was 2,233 for Boney and 2,076 for Bird with the other two men sharing 580 votes.

A complete count of National City ballots showed that Bird did not lose a precinct in his home city. Boney, who lives in La Mesa, showed his greatest strength there.

The two men will be opponents in the general election in November.

WRESTLING CHAMP — "J" Robinson, right, Mt. Miguel high school wrestling champ (154 pounds) was named Star of the Month by the Breitbard Athletic Foundation last week. A plaque from the Foundation is being presented by Bill Whitney, the foundation's executive manager. "J" recently successfully competed in Fresno and earned what is equivalent to the state high school wrestling championship in his weight. At mid-month he was scheduled to leave for Japan for wrestling competition there. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Robinson of 4080 Kenwood, Spring Valley. The Star of the Month Award is given to high school students who have shown outstanding sports ability. All students in the county are considered each time the Award is made.

Time To Plan Highway Is Now

There is yet to be a decision reached on routes and intersections of a highway that will connect the Sweetwater throughway to La Presa with State sign route 94 between Lemon Grove and Casa de Oro.

There will some day be public discussions as to which route the connecting link will follow — whether it should parallel Sweetwater on the west from Mt. Miguel high school and feed into 94 just east of the Sweetwater, Broadway, Imperial intersection, or whether it should parallel Bancroft on the west. In the latter event, the road would cut to Bancroft drive, from a point south of Mt. Miguel and connect with the freeway about a mile east of the La Mesa-Spring Valley-Lemon Grove interchange at Palm Broadway-Campo.

In either event the Grove st. west off-ramp will probably be discontinued according to the opinion of at least one engineer.

COLLEGE SEEKS FEDERAL FUNDS

Federal applications of $211,800 for equipment and supplies for technical and scientific programs at Grossmont College were approved at a meeting of the Grossmont Junior College District Governing Board Monday evening. Half of the funds, as anticipated, would accrue to the district from federal sources.

A 1964-65 budget calling for an estimated expenditure of $2,136,540 was approved. The new budget provided for a 6% increase in certificated salaries, a guiding reserve fund of $184,500 to provide for matching funds for federal or state grants which may become available for campus construction, and a $50,000 item for building and grounds improvements.

A current expense of education figure of $580 per student was cited for Grossmont College for 1963-64 by Superintendent Harold G. Hughes. The Grossmont College figure compared to an average per student cost of seven other Eastern Conference colleges of $597.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY — Lemon Grove restaurateur Sam Pernicano admires a 6-foot-9 tall trophy given him for his birthday last Saturday. The trophy was a surprise from the Levis and Laces square dancers and Coye Dunn. The trophy now has a prominent place in Pernicano's Pizza House on Broadway.

on Elizabeth Battram of Helix High School and Ethel Miller of Mount Miguel High School. The girls were selected for their outstanding scholarship, leadership, extracurricular activities and personality. Mrs. Earl Beach of Spring Valley will chaperone the 28 girls attending from San Diego County.

LET US ALL PRAY TOGETHER AS A FAMILY

"Trinity" season comes during the time of year when there are many temptations to become careless about our Christian growth. The weeds of "absenteeism" must be chopped down and uprooted as soon as they appear.

GOD'S MINUTE

REV. H. C. BAKKEN
"HOLY SPIRIT"

In Old Testament times the people of Israel sought God's will by the "Urim" and "Thummim." These two stones were carried by the High Priest and indicated by the light in them what the will of God was. In the New Testament Church our "Urim" and "Thummim" are the "Word of God" and the "Holy Spirit." Are you finding your way by these?

a funny bird the pelican

Even in this advanced age of technology, some things can't be controlled... like the friendly-looking pelican who unfortunately chooses to roost on electric lines where his tremendous wing span often shorts out service. We don't like to blame anything on a bird, but customers often ask us why electric service is occasionally interrupted in an area. There are many reasons... all accidental, like the pelican. Automobiles crash into utility poles... hunters' careless shots nip insulation... construction cranes and wind storms knock down wires.

Our skilled repairmen are on call in radio-equipped trucks 24 hours a day for just such emergencies. Whenever an electrical outage occurs, a special crew is dispatched to the scene immediately to restore service. We hope you are never without service, but if you are, we apologize, and assure you it won't be for long.

Here is another column by veteran writer Pete Odens of Imperial Valley. An interesting historian, his columns, which we will publish from time to time, will concern history of Southern California.

by Peter Odens

BORREGO SPRINGS, Calif. — Lester Reed who recently wrote a fine book about "Old Time Cattlemen and Other Pioneers of the Anza-Borrego Area" is still looking for the name of the Dutchman who died in the desert when this century was very young. Chances are Reed will never find the name, and the man who tried to save what was dearest to him will forever go down in history as just "The Old Dutchman".

It was about 1903 or 1904 when the Old Dutchman came traveling through Aguanga. He was driving a wagon on which he had stacked up his few belongings including some picks and shovels, a piece of furniture or two, a tent and several ducks and geese.

The Dutchman stopped briefly at the Tripp ranch near Aguanga on what is today Highway 79. He told Judd Tripp who was then about 26 years old but who knew the country well that he wanted to buy hay for the two horses pulling his wagon. He added that he was on his way to the Imperial Valley which was then being opened up because he had filed on a homestead claim there.

"This is a bad time of the year to be crossing the desert," Tripp told the Dutchman. He warned him that the summer heat was going to be hard for any man to stand and that it would surely kill his fowl if they were not well protected. But the old man merely shook his head and told Tripp that it was only a comparatively short distance, after all, and that he could make it.

What followed then was gathered by Lester Reed from reports he received from oldtimers. It seems the Old Dutchman traveled down Sentenac Canyon to what is today known as the Scissors Crossing, continued on toward the Valley, cito Stage Station on the old Imperial Highway and finally emerged into the desert. From there on, the going must have been terribly hard on the old man as he struggled on through washes, past ocotillos and smoke trees, wading ankle deep in sand as he tried to help his horses pull the heavy wagon, and having no water other than what little he carried in his canteen.

At Carrizo Creek he met a group of travelers who suggested he join them. They said they knew a short cut that would save valuable time, and the Old Dutchman agreed. But by that time he had become too tired to keep up with his companions. It seems he fell further behind, and, looking about and seeing no sign of a road, only the interminable washes of the Carrizo badlands, he decided that they had been lost. Panicky and alone except for his faithful horses and the few ducks and geese, he hoped he would find safety if he could go back to the old immigrant trail.

Somehow, he did find the trail again and turned north, back to the fertile valleys he had left behind. But it was too late. The summer heat had taken its toll. Before him loomed a steep climb known as Blue Hill. Slowly, he tackled the grade knowing he could never make it. Before arriving at the top, the Old Dutchman's strength gave out. He stumbled and fell.

Perhaps his mind began to wander and he saw before his eyes the homestead in the Imperial Valley he would never reach, and perhaps he remembered his friends and relatives he had left behind. But suddenly he remembered Tripp's warning. What had he done to his faithful companions, the ducks and the geese? They must not die!

With his last strength, he scratched a little hole into the ground and poured out the few drops of water left in his canteen. Somehow, he managed to free his ducks and geese so that they could drink from the hole. As for him, he was old and so tired.

He was found, delirious, by some travelers, but their efforts to save him were futile and they buried him there, on Blue Hill, marking his grave with stones. Reed, traveling along the old road a few years ago, could not find the spot where he was buried any longer, but he has captured the incident faithfully in his book.

for the five months interim to the tune of an additional $20.95 surcharge making a grand total of $27.65 to date. This would buy a half-case of 86 proof and you could have a real party... on me.

I also enclose my check for $17.10 to cover regular gas service at G-1 rate for period just ended. The two checks total $23.80 which is the figure on your bill under the words "please pay this amount".

I also regret to inform you that this budget upset has made it impossible for me to get away to the World's Fair this August or September, so there's nothing left for me to do but stay home and tend the flowers and take hot baths several times a day, read the meter occasionally, and watch my ten per cent go down the drain.

Letters TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

We wish to thank you for the help and cooperation in keeping our activities publicized. Your interest creates interest from the community and makes our efforts worthwhile. Thank you.

Sincerely,
Gai C. Herrick
Secretary
Monte Vista PTA

Dear Editor:

Dr. Frank Gigliotti of Lemon Grove was able to encourage his late good friend, Raymond Ennis, to leave a large proportion of his valuable estate to Goodwill Industries of San Diego County. Gigliotti, in one of his many conversations with Ennis, pointed out to the wealthy man that Goodwill Industries was making it possible for otherwise dependent people to become self-supporting, contributing, taxpaying citizens.

It is hoped that funds received from the Ennis Estate will be large enough to make it possible for Goodwill Industries to add a wing on its main plant at 402 Fifth Avenue in San Diego. If this is done, it is Gigliotti's request that the new building be named in honor of his friend, Ennis, who believed strongly in opportunity instead of handouts, and left a considerable part of his estate to support his belief.

Eugene Morrill
Executive Director
Goodwill Industries

The DIMMER VIEW

We believe it would serve the public of this area better for the new strip to parallel Sweetwater. This would permit travelers going north or west to avert back tracking. It would also dispossess fewer families whose homes would be torn down for the roadway.

We believe that Grove st. should be utilized. Instead of an off ramp for westbound traffic it could be converted into a direct route into Murray Hills giving that almost locked-in area easy access to local business communities.

If local chambers of commerce have an interest in these projects, now would not be too early to start a study by which the County and State Road Departments could get welcome guidance.

It Can Be Bought Locally

When we were asked recently by a local member of the printing profession why a considerable amount of printing purchased by public bodies in this district was being sent to Los Angeles, we had to confess that we didn't know the answer.

There are many fine printers in East San Diego County who are competitive with the L.A. people in price, comparable in quality and superior in service. We added our own opinion that we didn't know why taxing bodies, such as hospital, water works and schools, even sent their work outside the district each serves.

We told of a minor executive connected with an East County School District who had become so disturbed by the knowledge that one of the schools was making rather heavy printing purchases in Los Angeles that he came to us on his own time (bless him) and asked us to intercede in the interest of the good printers who operate within his district.

We don't know how to overcome the practice. The big boys from L.A. have a right to enter the bidding and the public bodies have a responsibility to use the lowest responsible bidder. However, a wad of stuff may be bought arbitrarily and need not be bid. Much of that goes to Los Angeles firms so we assume that the L.A. firms have better sales personnel in this area than the local firms have.

Even the Telephone Company has the printing of its San Diego County directories done in Los Angeles.

This week, the Bank of America, in its periodical "Small Business Reporter" said: "... the printing industry has boomed (in Los Angeles) to a point where the area is now third in the country in printing manufacturing, ranking behind New York and Chicago.

"The reverse can also take place. A case in point is the San Diego area.

Taxing bodies are sensitive to the desire for doing business locally when it does not add to the tax burden but in growing districts, such as there are in the East County these practices may become sloppy and a review of these practices should be made from time to time. A few years ago the districts were smaller and the printing manufacturing firms in the district were smaller and fewer, too. But now these firms are capable of handling any size job.

Maybe the time has come for the industry in this area to show the public bodies that it has grown too.

KOREA BOUND — Mount Miguel biology teacher, Gary Letson, tells Neil Good, student reporter, about his assignment to administer science instruction for Korean teachers. He was awarded a Fulbright scholarship. He will attend a briefing in Washington D.C. before leaving about August 20 for Korea.

KOREAN ASSIGNMENT AWARDED TO MOUNT MIGUEL TEACHER

Mount Miguel High School's loss will be Korea's gain when Gary Letson, Miguel biology teacher, leaves to supervise and administer science instruction to Korean teachers.

The assignment to the Ministry of Education in Korea is made possible through a Fulbright scholarship granted to Letson.

Summing up his feelings about the trip the Miguel teacher said, "I am excited in that it is an opportunity for me to upgrade the level of quality in science teaching."

According to government requirements Letson first had to be familiar with the approach to the teaching of science illustrated in the material of the Physical Science school committee, the new approach to the teaching of biological science developed by the committee or the newer experimental texts on the teaching of high school mathematics written under the supervision of the American Mathematical Society.

Letson will leave for Washington D.C. on June 29. After four days of briefing he will return to Spring Valley. On or about August 20 he will leave for Korea.

Not only will Letson be instructing teachers in Korea about the newest techniques in science, but he will also have the opportunity to participate in a variety of other activities, including visits to other countries.

Remarking on the difference between Korea and America, he said: "The classrooms have 60 students to a teacher. Instead of the students moving from class to class, the teacher does. This makes it difficult for the teacher to carry his lab experiments." He also added seriously, "Having sixty students makes it harder for the teacher to hold their interest."

College Catalogue

The 1964-65 Grossmont College catalogue is now available at the College bookstore on the Spring Valley campus.

FLYING NURSE TAKES TO THE SEVEN SEAS

Mount Miguel high school's flying nurse, Mrs. Isabelle McCrae, plans to trade her wings for sails come September.

Mrs. McCrae was recently named nurse for the fall semester aboard the floating university, S.S. Seven Seas.

"Ever since my son was three years old, we've talked about working our way around the world on a tramp steamer," reminisced the aviatrix. Mrs. McCrae's son, Mike, a freshman at San Luis Obispo, has been accepted as a student on the cruise. Mrs. McCrae and her son will be the first mother-and-son team to take the cruise together.

Another Miguel faculty member, Don Amundson, interested Mrs. McCrae in the trip. When he left the Matador campus last year, Mrs. McCrae jokingly asked him to keep her in mind. When Amundson learned several weeks ago that a nurse was needed, he immediately informed Mrs. McCrae. After a conference with university officials, she was accepted. The Grossmont district board of trustees has granted Mrs. McCrae a leave of absence. She will return to Miguel for the second term next year.

Mrs. McCrae will leave New York, October 19. The "Seven Seas" will dock in San Diego February 3, 1965.

The nurse, who has been at Miguel since its beginning seven years ago, says she wants to see Japan. "I'm also looking forward to shopping in Hong Kong," she explained.

Mrs. McCrae and friends from Chula Vista will journey by car to New York. Enroute they plan to tour the country and see the World's Fair in New York.

Golden Ave. PTA Ends Year With Two Events

The Golden Avenue PTA executive board closed out the year with two events. The outgoing board entertained the new board at a meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Fairman. There were 25 present. The board presented Mrs. Vernon Neely, outgoing president, with a crystal necklace and earrings as a farewell gift.

The day after school the PTA executive board and the room mothers hosted a pot luck luncheon for the teachers and staff of the school. A bridal theme was used and a gift was presented to Miss Alice Milne, second grade teacher, who is being married this month and will no longer be teaching at Golden Avenue. Lou Robinson will also be leaving the school.

This year the PTA is planning to refurbish the teachers' lunch room.

L.G. Library Adds Photographic Copier

The Lemon Grove Library announced a new service to the community. A Vico-Matic photographic copier has been installed temporarily, to enable people to copy papers at 25¢ per sheet. Magazine articles, birth certificates, reference material, recipes, legal papers, paid bills, and patterns are but a few of the many things that can be copied.

In preparation for the summer, the library has added many new books, accounts of far-away places for the armchair traveler, mysteries for summer refreshment, biographies and political books for those interested in present world situations and activities, plus many new juvenile books.

The summer reading club for 1964 has been named "Readers' Roundup". The project will start this week for the younger set. Ten books, on which reports must be written, is the ultimate goal for winning a certificate.

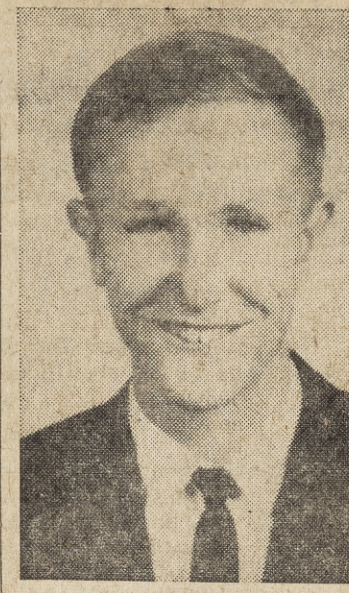

Hours for the summer will be 10 a.m. to 8:30 p.m. Monday through Friday and 9 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. Saturdays.

ROADS TO THE FUTURE

By Joan Taylor

Today the fourth dimension has come into its own. Time — that relative component — has been brought down to the here and now, so that you and I may use it to create a new and bigger world. How many of us I wonder appreciate time — time to work, create, — time to play in — time to reflect. Today in an expanding world, time has become a major topic of discussion. Tomorrow we will have so much of it — what will we do with it?

Many of us will take to the roads during our leisure hours — our destination the mountains, or the seashore, or our favorite trout lake. And it might be a good idea to give thought to the committed men who make this enjoyment possible; — to the roadmakers, — especially when they are the Del Hotel Paving and Grading Contractors, of 3426 Midway Drive, in San Diego, tuned to the evolving needs of the community in which they live, providing the people with roads, so that they may be a part of a bigger and ever expanding world. The Del Hotel Paving and Grading Contractors, your reputable, dependable, state licensed, paving contractors, specialize in grading, asphalt paving and excavating — road oiling and sealing. Call 279-1810, or 276-2968 — for free estimates, and plan your paving and grading now.

AWARDS—Mike Treinen was recently awarded the John F. Kennedy Award by Mount Miguel High School. The award was begun this year in honor of former President Kennedy and is to be given each year to a student exemplifying good citizenship qualities and student service to the school. Mike was also recently awarded the Sons of the American Revolution Good Citizenship Award.
